

SUPPLEMENTAL AMENDMENT
U.S. Nonprovisional Application No. 09/893,861

Remarks

The amendments contained herein do not constitute new matter. On page 19, the sentence is being amended to more correctly state what one of skill in the art understands, namely that while many bacteria isolated from cancer patients are gram positive, the majority are not necessarily gram positive.

Applicant earnestly solicits favorable consideration of the application. The Examiner is invited to telephone Applicant's undersigned representative if he believes that it would in any way facilitate prosecution of this application.

Dated: June 3, 2004

Respectfully submitted,
